Hon. A. H. Clark, U. S. Revenue Agent, was in the city last week and left this week for New Orleans, where he will be located for the next three months.

Capt. W. M. Green, conductor on the Nashville accommodation, left yesterday for Lake City Fla., whither he takes his wife to spend a month for the benefit of her health.

Miss Goodie Lowry, who attended school at Bethel Female College, in this city, a few years ago, will be married at San Antonio, Tex., to-day to Mr. J. T. Halle. She has many friends and admirers here who will wish her much happiness.

DIED.

WHITE: At her home in this city Friday, Nov. 21st, after an illness of six days, Miss Patsie White.

The deceased was a most estimable lady. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and her life was that of a pious and exemplary christian. She leaves one sister in this city, Mrs. T. B. Burdette. All her other relatives reside in Virginia. Her funeral was preached Saturday afternoon, by Rev. E. W. Bottomly, in the absence of her pastor.

Mrs. E. H. Barnett, an old and highly esteemed lady, died on the 12th inst., at the residence of Mr. D. M. Whitaker, near Casky. She died from the effect of a burn received some time before. She was in the 81st year of her age.

Romeo and Juliet.

John J. Henry, business manager for Miss Lillian Olcott, is in the city making arrangements for the appearance of this popular young American star at the Opera House on Saturday evening, Nov. 29th. Miss Olcott will appear as Juliet, and Mr. W. F. Hargrove as Romeo. Of the above the Norfolk Landmark says:

Miss Olcott with a powerful and well-selected company, under the management of Mr. E. L. Taylour, made her first appearance to an unusually large and enthusiastic audience at the Academy of Music last night in Shakespeare's great tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet." Miss Olcott is young and may be called beautiful, her face expressive of the tenderest feelings, her eyes bright and her smiles charming; youth, loveliness, appreciation, earnestness, intelligence, ambition—these are qualities of which Miss Olcott seems to be possessed. The company throughout is an excellent one, including Mr. Hargrove as Romeo and S. K. Chester as Mercutio. The wardrobes were superb, Miss Olcott's costume being strikingly elaborate and beautiful.

GRANGE LECTURES.

Editor SOUTH KENTUCKIAN: Allow me to announce through your valued paper, that Hon. T. A. Thompson, Past Lecturer of the National Grange, will deliver public addresses to the grangers and farmers of Christian and Todd Co's as follows: Friday Dec. 5th at Casky; Saturday Dec. 6th at Trenton and at Church Hill during the meeting of the State Grange, which will hold its next annual meeting at the Hall of Church Hill Grange, commencing Tuesday Dec. 9th. Everybody is invited to the public addresses. Private addresses will be given to the members of the order at an hour to suit their convenience.

J. D. CLARK, O. K. S. G. Newstead Ky., Nov. 22nd 1884.

Canaler's Stock Sale.

Polk Canaler sold at his semi-monthly sale last Saturday.

One medium mare,	$10 00
One spring-wagon and harness, ..	71 00
One buggy and harness, ..	65 00
One road cart, ..	11 00
One shot-gun, ..	8 00

There were several horses and mules and one milch cow offered but no other sales made. There being no demand for work stock and feeding time on hand caused this market to be very dull at this time. Next sale Saturday, Dec. 19th.

POLK CANALER, Manager.
 Jno. C. DAY, Auctioneer.

HERE AND THERE.

Howe's time is the city standard. Mr. C. W. Hae, who fell from a house last week, is able to be on the streets again.

Mr. Frank B. Richardson has been elected Police Judge of the town of Pembroke.

"Father time," Kelly's big town clock keeps both the Standard and Sun time.

Fresh Oysters, Celery and choice Mince Meat, for Thanksgiving, at Holland & Rodgers'.

Tom Lander, col., was arrested at Bellevue a few days ago, charged with stealing a hog and is in jail.

Mr. J. M. Tandy has rented the European Hotel property and will run the house another year.

"Allegree" is the name of a new postoffice established in Todd county, between Elkton and Kirkmansville.

The dancing club will give a hop at the Elkton next Thursday evening and a pleasant time is promised all who may attend.

The Kentucky State Grange will hold its next annual meeting with the Church Hill Grange in this county, on the 9th of next month.

The Assignee of Mr. E. A. Pike, disposed of a lot of furniture and other personal property at auction Saturday at the European Hotel.

The first blizzard of the season struck this latitude Sunday and there was a general freeze Sunday night. Ice was a quarter of an inch thick Monday morning.

Thanksgiving Day will be strictly observed in the city next Thursday. Not only the banks and public offices but all of the business houses will be closed all day.

Our first page is taken up this issue with some news that may be of great interest to some of our readers. At any rate we would advise all to peruse it.

Hog-killing will be the order of the day this week. Many farmers killed yesterday and others will do so to-day. Corn is scarce and the farmers have been growing impatient for a cold spell.

The rain Saturday night was the first for several weeks and was badly needed. There was not enough of it to put much water into the empty cisterns.

Rev. H. H. Allen, of Princeton, Ky., preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening. He is still in the city the guest of Judge J. J. Landes.

The nights are getting longer now and the farmers have more time to read newspapers. The South Kentuckian will keep you posted twice a week for $2.00.

If your paper stops coming suddenly, stop and ask yourself if your time is lost before you begin to use strong language. Remember we stop all papers when out.

We hope our correspondents will begin to send us the news again at regular intervals. We want the news during the winter months from every section of the county.

A young man named Wm. Donaldson, son of J. T. Donaldson, the painter, accidentally shot himself in the fleshy part of the leg while handling a pistol yesterday. The wound is not serious.

As usual the various churches of the city will hold the customary union services on Thanksgiving Day. By regular rotation the services will be held in the Christian Church and the Thanksgiving sermon will be preached by the pastor, Eld. Stanley.

The Todd county Progress will be started at Elkton Dec. 11th with Judge J. S. Ridley as editor and proprietor. It will be remembered that the Register suspended some time ago, and Todd county is now without an organ. The Progress will be a first-class paper and will supply a "long-felt want" in Elkton.

The Guthrie and Elkton railroad in Todd county is rapidly nearing completion. The grading will be finished to Elkton this week with favorable weather and it will take about ten days more to lay the track. It is expected that the cars will be running to Elkton before Christmas.

Next Wednesday week (Dec. 3d) is the opening sales of the Hopkinsville Tobacco Market. It is expected that a line of tobacco far better than usual will be offered, provided the weather is suitable for handling between now and that time. A full board of buyers is expected as several orders not filled on this market last season will be represented.

The ratification in Elkton last Thursday night was a pretty big affair. Speeches were made by Mess. Duffy, Reese, Terry, Dulaney, Porter, and Henry, the latter of this city. The Hopkinsville Cornet Band made music for the parade and the boys all had a rousing big demonstration. The affair was a little late but it was no slouch when it did come. The torch-light procession and display of fireworks were very creditable and the enthusiasm was unbounded.

How many old Democrats are there in Christian county who voted for Andrew Jackson and voted for Cleveland this year? We notice that the Cincinnati Post is collecting the names of all such in the State of Ohio, and we would like to know if there are any such in this county. If any of our readers know of any they will confer a favor by reporting their names to us, and giving date of birth and such other facts as may be of interest. We want to publish the names of the old veterans in a roll of honor.

Fire on Bridge Street.

A fire broke out in the old Elb house on Bridge street yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. It burned very slowly and the bucket brigades were able to keep the adjacent buildings from catching until the engine got to work at the cistern in front of Howe's store, when the fire was extinguished in time to save the lower part of the building, most of which was brick. The building was occupied by Julius Oncles, butcher, and Jno. Dinguid, col., saloon keeper. Both of these tenants saved everything of value. The losses fall on Mr. Moses Elb and Mr. John Moayon. The former had a lot of furniture stored up-stairs, some of which was lost. Mr. Moayon's loss of $400 or $500 on the building was covered by a $1,000 policy with Callis & Hays. The origin of the fire is a mystery. It was first seen on the roof. No one lived up-stairs and the old cause "a defective flue" is assigned.

What It Does.

Almost every lady habitually uses some kind of hair dressing. It is a toilet necessity. Parker's Hair Cream is the best, because it gives gloss and softness; arrests falling out; does not soil the most delicate fabric; is deliciously perfumed; cools the head; eradicates dandruff; and promotes a luxuriant growth.

CASKY.

The long-looked-for, much-talked-of wedding is soon to take place.

Miss Lou Yancy, of Fairview, was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Whitlow, last Sunday.

Miss Sue West, from Church Hill is visiting Mrs. R. P. Carneal, this week.

The new dwelling Mr. Geo. H. Bowles is erecting on his home place will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mrs. L. D. Watson is spending several weeks at Dawson Springs, for the benefit of her health.

Walter and Robt. Williams from Todd county, are visiting friends in this county.

Corn is both scarce and costly in this locality this season and many farmers are buying at $2.50 per bbl.

Hog cholera is raging in localities not very remote from this, and many are killing their hogs fearing the appearance of the madly here.

Miss Nettie Majors, a charming and petite belle from Henderson, is spending several weeks with friends here.

Brothers Cardwell, Reynolds and Shyer were among the commercial missionaries visiting here last week.

Mrs. Chas. Hyles, from Washington Territory, is visiting the family of Mr. D. M. Whitaker.

Mrs. S. W. Tallaferro, from Guthrie, visited her old home at "Idiglee," Friday last.

The Republican boys are now learning what defeat means in the fullest sense of the word. "It is a long lane that has no turn."

During the excitement attendant upon the organization of the line of march to the ratification meeting, some vandal stole a large demijohn filled with oil from the club. The loss cast a deep gloom over the subsequent proceedings.

There is no use talking, there is a veritable ghost out here. It has been seen by several parties lately and the fact can no longer be denied. Some say it is the "dead and gone spirit of the G. O. P.," others say it is a "haint," whatever that means.

Tom Penick sent Chris. Harrison the skin of a young rattlesnake from Texas. It measured eight feet eleven inches, actual count.

Iconoclast.

Malarial Poison.

Having spent much time for the past three years in and near Albany, Ga., I had gradually absorbed malaria into my system, and my general health was completely broken down; this poison culminated last November in a congestive chill, and I was confined to the bed and house for five months; was treated by the best physicians, by all the approved methods with no benefit. My health was finally broken down; my skin almost as yellow as a pumpkin; a thick heavy coat on my tongue; no appetite; and in a miserable fix generally. I was induced in April last to take Swift's Specific, and the first few doses convinced me that it was what I needed. I continued until I had taken several bottles, and am a well man, the poison has all been driven out of my system by Swift's Specific, and I have gained thirty pounds in weight.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Issued by the Governor of Kentucky.

I, J. Proctor Knott, Governor of Kentucky, do hereby recommend that the good people of this Commonwealth shall, with one accord set apart and observe Thursday, Nov. 27, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God for the manifold blessings he has vouchsafed to us during the past year; and that while the license of gratitude and praise shall ascend from the hearthstone and altar to the Great Giver of all good for His exceeding great mercy to us, we should remember the afflicted with brotherly kindness, and gladden the hearts of the poor by the gentle office of charity.

In testimony whereof I herewith sign my name and cause the great seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at the Capitol at Frankfort, the 19th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-third.

J. PROCTOR KNOTT.

EXCHANGE SCINTILLATIONS.

Miss Amy Belmont, of Burlington, Ia., weighs 316 pounds. Here's bad case of bigamy.—Louisville Times.

If it was really necessary to have a female candidate for President of the United States, we can not help thinking that Maud S. would have made a better run than the Hon. Delva Lockwood.—Buffalo Express.

It is rumored that President Arthur is considering the acceptance of the Presidency of Union College, which has been tendered him. He could give the students proper ideas as to the correct thing in pantaloons, which seems to be knowledge enough for the average young men of the period.—Louisville Times.

Two sons and a daughter in a Dayless county family married on the same day last week. This reminds us of a little story. Three bright young girls, sisters, were all to marry on the same day. A gentleman, who mingled the language on all occasions, meeting one of them, said: "Ah, Miss Mary, I understand there are to be triplets at your house." "Lord, Mr. P., I hope it won't be me," was the amused reply of the ready-witted girl.—Louisville Times.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

To The Tax-Payers of Christian County.

My term as Sheriff of Christian County ends with this year. I must and will close out my business. Many of you are owing me taxes. These must be paid right away. This means everybody. Do not say, "it does not mean me, I am good for my taxes." No man is as good as his money. I have employed a number of deputies, and on the 1st Monday in November, I shall start them out with orders to levy and sell and wind up this money business. I shall advertise all land and town lots for sale on the 1st Monday in December. Come in and pay and save costs. I mean what I say. I must wind out. I have neither home nor money, and cannot lay around this town for long years waiting to collect little amounts of tax. I give you fair warning. From rich and poor I must have this money.
